

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

Ex 892 Fbw 1930

LIBRARY
RECEIVED
JUN 23 1930 ★
U. S. Department of Agriculture

WHO'S WHO
AT THE NATIONAL
BOYS AND GIRLS
4H CLUB
CAMP

W H O'S W H O
at the
F O U R T H
N A T I O N A L 4-H C L U B C A M P
Washington, D. C.
June 18-24, 1930.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
Extension Service... C. W. Warburton, Director
Office of Cooperative Extension Work, C. B. Smith, Chief
Washington, D. C.

(In the event that more detailed information is desired, copies of the delegates' own stories may be obtained in most cases, at the press tent of the camp.)

W H O'S W H O

at the

FOURTH NATIONAL 4-H CLUB CAMP

C L U B D E L E G A T E S

ALABAMA

Mr. James Cooper, Tuscaloosa County, Ala., has been a 4-H club member for six years. He began with one gilt which later farrowed a litter of pigs. The next year he added corn growing in order to produce feed for his hogs. In his third club year he grew pigs, corn, peanuts and cotton, producing 500 pounds of lint cotton on an acre, 75 bushels of peanuts, and 50 bushels of corn. The following year, 1928, he bought his first calf, continuing to grow corn, cotton and pigs, and continued these lines in 1929, and again this year. His cotton has made a bale to the acre each year, his corn produced from 45 to 56 bushels per acre, and he has fed from 11 to 16 pigs each year. He has served as president of his club and as local leader.

Miss Sarah Duncan, Talladega County, Ala., began 4-H club work in 1926 when she carried on gardening, canning and foods work. In the five years she has specialized in these subjects and in home beautification, and clothing. She has served her club as president, vice president, group leader, and reporter. She has missed but two club meetings since she joined, five years ago.

Mr. Ray Evers, Conecuh County, Ala., joined his 4-H club first in 1926 when he undertook growing cotton and corn, and produced 600 pounds of lint and 45 bushels of corn on his two acres. He has continued growing these crops. He has been vice president, president, and group leader of his club at various times.

Miss Ruth Pope, Butler County, Ala., first became a 4-H club member in 1926. Her first two years were devoted to canning; in 1928 she added foods and poultry work; in 1929 took up home improvement and is this year growing a garden and continuing her canning work. She has been vice president, secretary, treasurer, and president of her club at various times. One of her exhibits in clothing work was a traveling outfit which won a place at the 1929 State short course exhibit. She assisted her club in building and furnishing a club room.

ARKANSAS

Miss Elma Davis, Monroe County, Ark., joined a 4-H club in 1926 and undertook gardening, poultry and canning work, and has continued demonstrations in these lines each succeeding year. In her first year she won a State contest for judging canned products after preliminary county contests. She has made an average net profit during her four years of club work of $280 per year. She is now attending high school, driving 14 miles to and from school daily. She has served as local leader for her club one year and as president two years.

Mr. Celma Gilliland, White County, Ark., has been a member of a 4-H club since 1927. For three years he has grown corn, making 50 bushels from one acre the first year, 208 bushels from three acres the second, and 70 bushels from a one-acre plot the third year. That year he also fed and cared for a gilt and 7 pigs. He has been president of his own 4-H club and also president of the county and district 4-H organizations.

Mr. Austin Holland, Ashley County, Ark., joined a 4-H club in 1924, choosing corn and cotton growing for his demonstrations. In 1926 he added sweet potato growing. He has produced at least one bale of cotton per acre each year and in 1928 produced 750 pounds of lint. He has been president of his local 4-H club five years and president of the county club council for two years. In 1928 and again in 1929 he served as local leader. He has also grown cabbage and sweet potatoes. In 1929 in a five-acre cotton contest, produced a bale per acre and made second highest yield in the county.

Miss Mary White, Pulaski County, Ark., has been a 4-H club member since 1923. Being fond of outdoor work, she chose gardening for her first demonstration and has continued to cultivate one each year, adding to her interests clothing, cooking, and room improvement. She has been at different times, secretary-treasurer, reporter, vice president, and president of her club, and for two seasons has served as local leader in cooking and sewing.

CONNECTICUT

Mr. George Dart, Tolland County, Conn., has been a 4-H club member since 1926. His first club work was the keeping of records on six cows. This was followed by poultry raising, with dairy work added again in 1928 and 1929. He has been treasurer and secretary, vice president, and president of his club, and was local leader for two years.

Mr. Paul Holdridge, New London County, Conn. His first club work was with poultry, begun in 1927, and continued each year since. His first flock of 30 pullets made a laying average of 107 eggs per bird. The next year he had built up his flock to 110 pullets and made a laying record of an average of 151 eggs per bird. His last flock numbers 337 pullets and they have averaged, up to April 1, 65 eggs per bird. He has been president of his club and local leader for two years.

Miss Dorothy Hollister, Litchfield County, Conn. Became a 4-H club member in November, 1927, enrolling for work with foods. The first year she prepared 57 separate dishes and 36 complete meals. During the summer months she worked at canning, resuming food preparation again in the autumn. She has been local leader of her club, trained several demonstration teams for competitions, and had charge of three achievement programs.

Miss Katherine Mara, Windham County, Conn., has been a club member since 1928, and has specialized in food preparation, canning, and planning of meals. She has served as president of her club for two years.

DELAWARE

Miss Elizabeth Armour, Kent County, Del. First began 4-H club work in 1925, undertaking clothing and preparation of foods for her special enterprises. These she continued the following year. In 1928 she began canning and poultry work and for 1929 and 1930 she again took up clothing work. She has been secretary and president of her club.

Mr. George Phillips, New Castle County, Del. Has been a 4-H club member since 1924, specializing exclusively in poultry raising until 1929 when he purchased a dairy calf. This year he is feeding and caring for his second calf. He has been vice president and president of his club and has also served as chairman of the program committee.

Mr. Leonard Sapp, Kent County, Del. Has been a club member since 1927, when he undertook the feeding and care of a calf. He has continued each of the following years. He has served as vice president and as secretary of his club.

Miss Margaret Thorp, Sussex County, Del., joined a 4-H club in 1924 and for the first two years specialized in clothing work, adding weaving the second year. The third year she began canning work and has continued this enterprise up to the present time. She is a freshman in college. She has been president and local leader of her club.

FLORIDA

Miss Mary Effa Bradley, Leon County, Fla., has been a club member since 1926 when she undertook clothing and poultry raising projects. She has continued both of these, building up her flock of poultry from 15 birds up to her present stock of 221 birds. In 1928 she added food preparation to her work and in 1929, home improvement. She has been secretary-treasurer, vice-president, and president of her club, and served as local leader for several seasons.

Mr. Hugh Dukes, Union County, Fla. Began his 4-H club work with a corn-growing enterprise, producing 46 bushels on his club acre. The next year he grew corn and fed a pig to market condition, sold it and bought a bred sow. In 1929 he produced $87\frac{1}{2}$ bushels of corn, raised 8 pigs, sold six and kept two, one of which won a State championship. Has been president of his club and local leader.

Mr. Wilson Roberts, Washington County, Fla. His first club enterprise was growing sweet potatoes, in 1926. This he continued in 1927, at the same time starting a poultry project. In 1928 he grew peanuts, producing 35 bushels from his acre of ground; in 1929 he fed six pigs for market, and this year he is growing corn. He has been president and local leader of his club.

Miss Guilda Yates, Orange County, Fla. Has kept a flock of 55 laying hens, improved her own room, cared for a garden 150 by 150 feet in size, and completed the sewing necessary for her home improvement plans. She has been secretary, treasurer, vice-president and president of her club, president of the county 4-H club council, and has served as editor-in-chief of the club newspaper, and local leader for her club.

GEORGIA

Miss Dorris Dasher, Lowndes County, Ga. Her first club work, begun in 1928, consisted of cooking, sewing, and canning. In 1929 she continued these enterprises and added gardening. She has been president of her club and local leader.

Mr. Jethro Duncan, Wayne County, Ga. Has been interested since his first year, 1925, in growing sweet potatoes, making a better yield each year, his highest record being 200 bushels per acre. In 1929 he also grew an acre of corn, harvesting 100 bushels, and fed two pigs to over 200 pounds weight. This year he is feeding another pig and growing corn. He has been vice president of his club and president of the county club leaders' association and has been local leader of a club.

Mr. Harry Felton Tucker, Decatur County, Ga. Has grown cotton as a club enterprise each year since 1925, his lowest yield being 769 pounds per acre, and his highest, 1136 pounds per acre. In 1929 he started growing peanuts, producing 34 bushels from his acre of ground, and he is again growing cotton and peanuts this year. He has been chairman of his club group and has been local leader.

ILLINOIS

Lewis Butzow, Iroquois County, Ill., has been in 4-H club work for eight years, during which time he has been growing sheep, poultry, pigs, beef cattle, and corn. He shows his stock both at the State fair and the International Livestock Exposition.

George A. Doole, Adams County, Ill., joined a 4-H club seven years ago, undertaking livestock work. He has fed pigs, poultry, and baby beef, showing at local and district fairs. Among other enterprises he has made a start toward a business of his own by developing a herd of 20 hogs. He is paying part of his expenses in the Illinois college of agriculture by his club livestock.

Miss Joy M. Hardy, Hancock County, Illinois., became a 4-H club member in 1924 and has specialized in clothing and room improvement. In 1929 she was State room improvement champion. She has been president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and reporter for her club at various times. She is at present preparing for college.

Miss Mildred Mies, Livingston County, Ill., has been a 4-H club member six years, doing clothing, baking, and poultry work. She has been county baking and health champion and has served her club as news reporter, secretary, and president. She is now a home economics student at the University of Illinois.

INDIANA

Miss Joenita Burd, Rush County, Ind., has been a 4-H club member for seven years, specializing in clothing, canning, and baking. In 1928 she won State championship in canning. She has been vice president, president, secretary, news reporter, and group leader of her club at various times. The two years in which she served as leader, her club made a 100 per cent completion record.

Mr. Earl L. Butz, Noble County, Ind., joined a 4-H club in 1927, choosing as his enterprise the feeding of a beef calf. He continued his beef cattle work and in 1928 undertook feed and management of pigs. For two years he has served as junior leader of a club having 37 members, 95 per cent of which completed their year's work in 1928 with a slightly higher record in 1929. He is attending Purdue University through a scholarship won in his club work.

Mr. Charles W. Myers, Wayne County, Ind., first entered a 4-H club in 1923, feeding and caring for a pig as his club enterprise. He began to build up a herd of registered pigs and also added poultry raising, corn growing, and potato growing. This past year he had 12 acres of corn, 3 acres of potatoes, 7 sows and litters, and 1400 chickens. His 1930 enterprises are somewhat more extensive. He has served his club both as officer and leader. Last year the club trained for and gave three demonstrations of improved farming methods, exhibited their club work locally, and several were represented at the State Fair. He is a student at Purdue University.

Miss Ruby Richardson, Tippecanoe County, Ind., has been a 4-H club member since 1923, specializing in clothing and canning work. She has been both club officer and leader for her club of 18 girls. All of the members completed their work last year and exhibited at the county fair. She has represented her club in county and State demonstration and judging contests.

IOWA

Miss Blanche Brobeil, Sac County, Iowa. First became a 4-H club member in 1926, selecting clothing as her enterprise. Two years later she undertook canning, the following year carried out a year's program in bread making, and is at present engaged in home furnishing work. She has been a member of demonstration teams taking part in county and State events; has been reporter, secretary-treasurer, president, and chairman of the program committee for her local club, president of the girls' 4-H county organization and editor of the county 4-H paper. She has shown her club products at county and State fairs.

Miss Corrine Conard, Calhoun County, Iowa. Chose clothing as her first 4-H club enterprise in 1925. Continued this work until 1928 when she began home furnishing work, and is specializing this year in canning. She has been a member of teams engaging in a number of demonstrations and has also given a number of demonstrations of club methods alone. She has been a member of the county champion judging team which won first place at the State fair contest. She has been reporter, secretary, and president of her local club, and president of the county organization of 4-H club girls and has been a delegate to the State 4-H convention.

Mr. Walter DeWinter, Webster County, Iowa. When he first joined a 4-H club, in 1926, he selected the care and management of a dairy heifer as his club demonstration. He has also carried on work in care of pigs, feeding and caring for a sow and litter in 1927 and again in 1929. He has built up a herd of dairy cattle and is working with his father in the management of the home farm. He has been president of his local club, president of the county organization, and vice president of the State association of 4-H club boys. He is also serving as a local club leader.

Mr. Irvin Edwards, Madison County, Iowa. Began his 4-H club experiences with the development of one baby beef animal in 1924. He has continued this work each year since. Last year he showed the champion baby beef in his breed at the State fair and also showed the first prize summer yearling steer of the same breed in the open class at the State exhibition and won these and other placings at the Ak-Sar-Ben livestock show at Omaha, Nebraska, as well as the reserve champion steer of his breed in the open class.

KANSAS

Miss Jeanette S. Gamble, Montgomery County, Kans. Began her club work with a dairy calf enterprise, which she continued for three years. In 1927 she became interested in clothing work and in 1929 added poultry and canning enterprises. This year she is continuing these and is also doing room improvement work. She represented Kansas in a national exhibit contest in 1929, showing a complete costume which she had designed, selected and constructed, which won the blue ribbon. She has been reporter, vice president, secretary, and president of her club and acted as local leader for two seasons. She had charge of recreation at the last Montgomery County 4-H camp.

Miss Olga Larsen, Lincoln County, Kans. Has been a 4-H club member since 1923 when she enrolled for clothing work. This she continued a second year and then engaged in room improvement work for two years. She has been serving as local leader since 1927. Her club some time ago restored an old school house which they are using for a club house. They have community dinners, produce club plays, and carry on their regular club meetings in the club house. She has been club reporter, secretary-treasurer, and local leader.

Mr. Gaylord Munson, Geary County, Kans. Has carried on a baby beef enterprise as his club work since 1926. Since 1927 he has been growing corn and for two years he was a poultry raiser. He has averaged over 98 bushels of corn from his club acre, his highest yield being 104 bushels in 1927. He has fed out 13 baby beeves. Since 1927 he has been local leader and at various times has been president of his local club and of the county organization.

Mr. Albert Pease, Bourbon County, Kans. First joined a 4-H club in 1924, selecting corn growing as his specialty. Since 1927 he has been local leader of his club, and was president one year. His club has made a high record in exhibits, judging, and completion of undertakings.

KENTUCKY

Mr. Robert L. Graves, Boone County, Ky. First club work was poultry raising, begun in 1924. In 1926, he added corn growing, in 1927, fed and cared for a calf, and in 1928, began a lamb feeding enterprise. This year he is also growing a fourth acre of potatoes. He has been president of his local club and secretary-treasurer and president of the county 4-H club. Owns 3 purebred Jerseys and a small flock of sheep. One of his heifers won 3rd place in a ring of 31 at the State Fair and a cow produced 189.6 pounds of butterfat in a 5 months record.

Miss Ruth Harris, Campbell County, Ky. Began club work in 1923, specializing in clothing which she continued until 1929 when she took up food preparation and canning. This year she is carrying room improvement work. Has been president and local leader of her club.

Mr. Ed. Hays, Jackson County, Kentucky. His first club work was poultry raising, in 1923, and he has continued this line of work each succeeding year with the exception of 1928 when he fed a pig for marketing. He has been secretary and vice president of his club and local leader.

Miss Elizabeth Word, Christian County, Ky. Has been in 4-H club work eight years, specializing in clothing, food preparation, and canning. Was State clothing champion in 1926 and State canning champion in 1929. She has been secretary and president of her club.

LOUISIANA

Miss Birdye Browning, East Baton Rouge Parish, La. Has been in club work since 1924 when she undertook gardening, canning, and clothing demonstrations. In 1926 she added food preparation and in 1927 poultry work. This year she is also feeding and caring for two pigs. From her club work in 1930, to date, she has 2 pigs, 30 bushels of garden produce, and has canned 365 quarts of fruits and vegetables. She has been president of her club, secretary of the parish 4-H executive committee, and has served as local leader for four seasons.

Mr. Russell Dernier, St. James Parish, La. Began his club work in 1928 with the care and feeding of a brood sow and litter of 8 pigs. In his second year he managed two litters of pigs, grew an acre of corn which produced 42 bushels, a half acre of cabbage from which he sold forty 100-pound crates, and cultivated a garden from which he obtained 72 bushels of vegetables. This year he is growing an acre of potatoes and caring for a pig. He has been president of his local club and of the parish executive committee, and was local leader of a club three seasons.

Mr. Leonard Murrell, Webster Parish, La. His first 4-H enterprise was feeding and managing a pig and growing two acres of cotton which yielded two bales. The following year he planted one acre of cotton from which he obtained a bale of cotton, planted and cared for 36 peach trees, and cultivated an acre of corn. In 1928 he continued these enterprises. In 1929 he purchased a calf and this year is caring for cotton, corn, a calf, and his orchard. He has been vice-president, president, and local leader of his club.

Miss Winnie Roach, Grant Parish, La. Has been a 4-H club member since 1928 when she undertook poultry, clothing, canning, and food preparation work. She has continued these lines of work and has in her poultry flock now 30 hens, 4 roosters, 90 fryers, and 24 baby chicks. She has been president and local leader of her club.

MAINE

Miss Elva Bridges, Franklin County, Maine.

Mr. Herbert B. Hurd, Piscataquis County, Maine.

Mr. Norman K. Smith, Hancock County, Maine.

Miss Margaret R. Young, Knox County, Maine.

MARYLAND

Miss Cleona Brinsfield, Dorchester County, Md. Has been in club work the last three years, and is continuing her club work, although at college, in the expense-account project. This summer she will give special help in the planning and management of the county club camp and will also act as local leader of a club of younger girls.

Mr. William Chilcoat, Baltimore County, Md. Has been carrying on a demonstration in feeding and care of dairy calves since 1927. He now owns two purebred calves. Has exhibited his animals at a number of shows and participated in dairy cattle judging contests. He has been vice president and president of his club and assisted in the organization of other clubs in the county.

Mr. Edwin Cissel, Howard County, Md., started club work when a 9-year-old with two settings of eggs. The next year wanted a calf instead of poultry and persuaded his father to consent to his buying a heifer which he paid for from his own money. Has continued his interest in dairy cattle, exhibiting his stock and participating in judging work with other members of his club each year. Now owns two cows, a heifer, 50 chickens, 3 turkey hens and a turkey gobbler and is in partnership with his mother in a 300-baby-chick enterprise. Has been president of his club.

MASSACHUSETTS

Miss Mary Elizabeth Allison, Plymouth County, Mass. Has been a 4-H club member since 1927, carrying on clothing work each year. She has served as assistant leader and as local leader of her club and has also been president.

Mr. Kenneth Cahoon, Barnstable County, Mass. First joined a 4-H club in 1923 when he cultivated a garden of 100 sq. ft. He has continued his garden work, enlarging its area, and has added poultry raising and handicraft work to his enterprises. This year he is gardening 7,000 square feet and has 35 birds. He has been secretary, president, and local leader of his club and secretary and president of the county service club.

Mr. Ralph H. Granger, Hampden County, Mass. Began his club work in 1926, growing corn and caring for honey bees. His one-colony bee enterprise has grown to nine colonies. Last year from seven colonies he took 230 pounds of honey. This year he is organizing a fruit-growing club of which he will be local leader. He has been president of the Hampshire-Hampden-Franklin County Beekeepers Association.

Miss Mary A. Pillsbury, Middlesex County, Mass. Undertook canning as her first club enterprise, in 1924. Has continued this each year since, adding food preparation, and room improvement in 1926 and clothing work and handicraft in 1927. She has improved two rooms in her home, canned a large portion of the family's winter supply of fruits and vegetables, made most of her own clothes, several handicraft articles and has reseatd a number of chairs. Has been reporter, secretary, treasurer, vice president, and president of her club, and has also served as local leader.

MICHIGAN

Mr. Ludell W. Cheney, Ingham County, Mich. Began 4-H club work in 1926, selecting the care of a dairy calf as his demonstration and has continued it each year since. He has shown his animals at county and State events, winning first place a number of times. Has competed in county and judging contests, winning the privilege of representing his State at the National Dairy Show in a judging contest and again on his exhibit of his herd. With his brother gave 15 public demonstrations on "Production of high quality milk on the farm." Has been president of his club and local leader.

Miss Verna Dahlke, Bay County, Mich. Joined a 4-H club in 1926, selecting sewing for her enterprise. This she has continued each year, adding food preservation work in 1929. She has exhibited her club products each year at county events, winning several championships. She has been secretary-treasurer and president of her club, and has served as local leader for two seasons.

Mr. Robert Johnson, Marquette County, Mich. Began his 4-H club year in 1924 with the care of a yearling heifer. Has continued dairy work each year from that time, developing his young stock into producing animals, feeding for production, keeping records, exhibiting his animals at county, regional and State fairs. Attended the National Dairy Show two years through the winnings of his herd. Has participated in a number of dairy cattle judging contests. Has been a member of the local dairy herd improvement association for two years. Has raised and sold seven head of dairy animals and now has a herd of six purebreds. Has been president of his club and local leader.

Miss Isabelle McKellar, Saginaw County, Mich. Has been a 4-H club member since 1925. Has specialized in canning and clothing work. Exhibited her products at community, county, State, inter-state, and National events, winning county championships and State and national honors. She has been a member of demonstration and judging teams which participated in a number of county and State events. Has been president of her club and local leader. Club members under her leadership have won honors both at county and State events.

MINNESOTA

Mr. Thomas Morse, Itasca County, Minn. Entered 4-H club work in 1925, specializing in dairy calf feeding and management. For two years he grew potatoes and one year had a poultry flock. He has exhibited in county and State club events and has participated in livestock judging work. In partnership with his mother he has built up a herd of dairy cattle. He has been vice president, secretary, and junior leader of his club and is at present president of the Itasca County Poultry Association.

Mr. Chelsea Pratt, Blue Earth County, Minn. Enrolled in 4-H club work in 1921 and undertook feeding and management of a dairy calf. Continued his dairy work four years, developing nine animals during this time. He then began work with poultry in which he is at present engaged. Has shown his holdings at county and State events and has participated in judging and demonstration contests. He has been president and junior leader of his club.

Miss Anne Schubring, Ramsey County, Minn. Has been in 4-H club work since 1921 when she began clothing work. Two years later she enrolled for canning. In 1926 she started a poultry enterprise and the following year, room improvement. Was State health champion in 1929. Has been secretary, president, and junior leader of her club.

Miss Helen Van Deer, Freeborn County, Minn. Has been a 4-H club member since 1925 when she enrolled for canning work. The next year she began clothing work which she continued for three years and then undertook room improvement. She has been a member of demonstration and judging teams which took part in local and State events, and has exhibited her work at the State fair. She has been president and junior leader of her club.

MISSISSIPPI

Miss Cecile O'Brien, Hinds County, Miss. Joined a 4-H club in 1925, enrolling for poultry, gardening, and canning demonstrations. She has continued these enterprises throughout the five years she has been a club member. This year she is also doing room improvement. She now has a flock of 123 laying hens, incubator, brooder-house and other poultry raising equipment which she has purchased from the proceeds from her flocks. She has canned fruits and vegetables for market and is filling an order for 3,000 cans this summer. She has been a member of demonstration and judging teams from her club and has exhibited her club products at local, county and State events.

Mr. Ross Smith, Neshoba County, Miss. Has been a 4-H club member since 1924 when he undertook growing an acre of corn from which he made a yield of 57 bushels. The next year he tried cotton, making a yield of 1163 pounds of seed cotton on his club acre. He has continued his corn and cotton growing, adding pig and dairy calf enterprises in 1928.

Last year he produced 83 bushels of corn, 1600 pounds of seed cotton, 4 head of purebred dairy cattle, a purebred hog and 25 market pigs. Has been a member of judging teams, and has exhibited his club products at local and State events. He has been president of his club, and also served as president of the county 4-H dairy calf club and of the county 4-H executive committee

Miss Louise Temple, Montgomery County, Miss. Has been a 4-H club member four years. She first undertook gardening and canning, adding later, food preparation, poultry, clothing, and room improvement. She has participated in demonstrations and judging events and during the absence of the county home demonstration agent, conducted a short course. She has been secretary and president of her club, vice president and secretary of the county 4-H executive committee, and junior leader of a club of sixty girls.

Mr. Joe Thompson, Chickasaw County, Miss. Began club work in 1921 with a demonstration in the feeding and care of a sow and litter of pigs. This he followed with corn and cotton growing. He has averaged something over 1400 pounds of seed cotton from his acre for six years and has produced from 50 to 60 bushels of corn on his club acre. He has paid all of his high school expenses for the past three years by his club enterprises and is at present a senior in the county agricultural high school. He has been president of his local club and of his county 4-H executive committee.

MISSOURI

Miss Marguerite Ferguson, Jackson County, Missouri. Began her club work in 1926 with a clothing enterprise. This was followed by supper club work, room improvement, canning, and baby beef enterprises. Has missed only one meeting during the five years she has been a member. She has been reporter, secretary, and president of her club. Was also assistant superintendent of the 4-H department at a community fair and is now serving as local leader of a club.

Mr. J. B. McCorkle, Howard County, Mo. Is in his sixth year of 4-H club work in which he has carried on demonstrations in feeding and management of baby beef each year. In 1929 he added care and feeding of a sow and litter to his livestock enterprises. He is paying his college expenses through his club enterprises. His livestock has been shown in local and State events both in club and open classes. He has participated in a number of cattle judging contests. He has been secretary, vice president, and president of his club, and local leader of a club.

Mr. Elwood Motte, St. Louis County, Mo. Joined a 4-H club in 1925 and selected as his club enterprise the growing of market tomatoes. This he followed with sweet potatoes, early and late white potatoes for market. He has shown his products at county and State fairs and was a member of the State champion potato club demonstration team in 1929. He has been treasurer, vice president, and president of his club.

Miss Anita Zagrodzky, Buchanan County, Mo. Enrolled for the clothing enterprise in a 4-H club in 1924 and has continued a club member each succeeding year. In 1926 she carried on a supper project and in 1927 engaged in room improvement work. The last two years she has done canning work. She has been State champion in judging, demonstration work, and on exhibiting. She has been reporter, secretary, vice president, and president of her club, and has served as a local club leader for two seasons.

NEBRASKA

Miss Ruth Childs, Boone County, Nebr. Joined a 4-H club in 1926, enrolling for clothing work, which she continued in 1927 and 1928. Two years ago she added room improvement to her club program and last year carried on food preparation work. She has been reporter, secretary, treasurer, and president of her club and has also served as a local leader for one season.

Miss Ruth Durst, Johnson County, Nebr. Has been a club member since 1924, beginning her club work with a clothing enterprise, to which she later added food preparation and room improvement. She has served as local leader of a club for two seasons and has been reporter, secretary, treasurer, and president of her own club.

Mr. Anthony Pokorny, Lancaster County, Nebr. Began his club work in 1925 with corn-growing and pig-raising demonstrations. These enterprises he has continued each year, adding garden and baby beef growing in 1929. He has produced in his club work 223 bushels of corn, 62 pigs, and 2 baby beeves. He was a member of a grain judging team which judged at the Interstate Fair, Sioux City, Iowa. Has been reporter, secretary, treasurer, and president of his club and has served as assistant leader for several seasons.

Mr. Henry C. Sexson, Cass County, Nebr. Enrolled in 1924 as a 4-H club member and undertook a demonstration in feeding and care of market pigs, having a herd of eight pigs. Has since continued this line of work and added corn and potato growing. He has been secretary, treasurer, and president of his club, and served as local club leader for three seasons. He is at present in college.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Mr. John A. Goiser, Rockingham County, N. H. First enrolled for 4-H club work in 1927, undertaking a garden demonstration. This he continued the following year and again in 1929, adding a demonstration in the care and management of apple trees and a dairy enterprise comprising feeding and care of a cow, a heifer, and two calves. He has been secretary and president of his club, and has served as local leader for a club one season.

Miss Nan Pearson, Rockingham County, N. H. Began her club work in 1923, choosing clothing as her specialty. This she continued until 1928 when she completed a room improvement demonstration. The following year she undertook food preparation work and is continuing that this year. In her first year's food preparation work she prepared 20 meals, prepared and packed 10 lunches, and cooked 420 dishes. She has been treasurer, vice president, and president of her club, and for three seasons has also served as a local club leader.

Miss Pearl B. Reed, Coos County, N. H. Has completed five years of club work, beginning with canning and following with clothing work four years, and adding this year, food preparation. Has been reporter, secretary, and vice president of her club and also served one season as assistant club leader and one season as club captain.

Mr. Junior James Treloar, Merrimack County, N. H. Joined a 4-H club in 1926 and undertook poultry raising as his club enterprise. This he continued until 1929 when he demonstrated gardening, cultivating a half-acre of ground. He has been secretary, treasurer, vice president, and president of his club, and served one season as club captain.

NEW JERSEY

Miss Ida Amilia Hammell, Sussex County, N. J. Has been a 4-H club member for seven years. Her first work was in food preparation, to which she added clothing and home management work later. She has been a member of demonstration teams which participated in county and State events. Last year, as a chairman of a committee of her club, she planned and managed a banquet for more than a hundred persons. She has been secretary and president of her club and has acted as local leader for three seasons.

Mr. Roger L. Merrick, Monmouth County, N. J. His major 4-H club enterprise has been dairying, which he began in 1927 with one purebred heifer. He has built up a herd of seven animals, three of which are purebreds; has shown them at both county and State events. In addition to his dairy enterprise, has been interested in forestry work, corn growing, and is this year fitting three pigs for market. He has competed in county and State dairy judging contests in which he has won a number of medals. Has been secretary and president of his club at various times and is at present serving as local leader.

Miss Erma Reddle, Warren County, N. J. Began her club work in 1926 with a clothing enterprise which she continued the two following years. She then enrolled for food preparation work which she is continuing this year. She has been secretary of her club.

Mr. George A. Wheaton, Cumberland County, N. J. Has had seven years' experience in dairy club work and is continuing his enterprise this year. He began with a purebred yearling heifer and now owns two herd sires, a young bull, and five cows, all purebreds. He holds membership in a local dairy herd improvement association and has production records on individuals in his herd beginning with 1924. He has shown his cattle in county and State events and for two years has entered at the Trenton Inter-State Fair. He has also been a member of dairy judging teams competing in county and State shows.

NEW MEXICO

Mr. Austin Brooks, Curry County, N. Mex. Has been a 4-H club member since 1925 when he enrolled for a demonstration in feeding a pig for market and in the care of a dairy calf. He has continued his dairy work each following year and in 1928 added growing of kafir and maize and also cultivated a garden. In 1929 he fed and managed two dairy cows, a yearling heifer and two calves, fattened two pigs for market, grew six acres of hegari, eight acres of maize, 25 acres of corn, and a quarter-acre of garden, had a flock of 50 chickens. He also invaded the field of cookery preparatory to a camping expedition and is finding his knowledge useful this year as he and two other students at college are "keeping bach". Has been vice president and president of his club, and has served as assistant local leader two seasons.

Mr. Roger Elser, Dona Ana County, N. Mex. Joined a 4-H club first in 1924 and has been a member each year since that time. Has specialized in gardening, management of bees, poultry raising and in dairying. Has been vice president and president of his club and has served as local leader for three seasons.

Miss Maurine Jones, San Miguel County, N. Mex. Began her 4-H club work in 1923 with a sewing enterprise which she continued the following year. In 1926 she enrolled for food preparation work, in 1927 added home furnishings and canning, and in 1928 added millinery to her clothing enterprises. Has participated in a number of team demonstration contests at both county and State events. Has been secretary, vice president, and president of her club, has served as local leader for three seasons.

Miss Kathryn Woodbridge, Harding County, N. Mex. First enrolled in a 4-H club in 1924 when she undertook a sewing enterprise. She has continued this each year since, adding canning work in 1927 and food preparation in 1928. She has been a member of demonstration teams participating in county and State events. As leader of a 4-H club of girls specializing in sewing and cooking, she trained a demonstration team which won in a county contest and will go soon to the State short course at the agricultural college as representatives of the county. She has been secretary, vice president, and president of her club.

NEW YORK

Mr. George Allen, Otsego County, N. Y. Has been in 4-H club work since 1922, specializing in gardening. He has exhibited his products at a number of fairs throughout the State and has participated in demonstrations of gardening methods at a number of events. He has been president of his club and is serving his third season as local leader.

Mr. Herbert H. Baum, Orange County, N. Y. Began his club work in 1925 with a small flock of mongrel chickens. After his first year has grown standard bred chickens only and has shown his stock at county and State poultry exhibitions, winning a number of ribbons. Has participated in poultry judging contests at county, State, and interstate events. Has been treasurer of his club and has been local leader for one season.

Miss Louise N. Burdick, Monroe County, N. Y. Has been a 4-H club member since 1923, beginning her work with canning, food preparation, and clothing enterprises. The clothing work she has continued each year since enrolling. Has been secretary, treasurer, vice president, and president of her club and has served as a local leader for three seasons.

Miss Mary E. Corley, Onondaga County, N. Y. Began her 4-H club work in 1927 with a canning enterprise. Has continued this work each year since, adding clothing, home improvement work and gardening. Has been vice president, president and local leader of her club.

NORTH CAROLINA

Miss Lena Mae Early, Iredell County, N. C. First enrolled in 4-H club work to carry on sewing enterprises, in 1925, and continued this for three years, adding food preparation in 1927 and room improvement in 1929. Has also been much interested in recreation enterprises and has had charge of recreation at short courses and camps. Has been president of her local club, president of her community club, and a member of the county council. Has also been local leader for two seasons.

Mr. Ellenson McDougald, Lee County, N. C. In 1924 joined a 4-H club and chose cotton growing as his club enterprise. Has grown this crop each year, trying different methods of fertilizing and various recommended varieties. Has made from 1536 pounds to 2688 pounds of seed cotton from his acre, with the exception of the 1929 crop when hail storms and boll weevil cut down his returns. Has been secretary of his club, and is at present managing the home farm.

Mr. Paul Edwards Moose, Catawba County, N. C. Began his 4-H experiences in 1918 with a poultry enterprise. Has continued his poultry business, adding a dairy calf feeding enterprise in 1922, buying his first calf with his own money. He has exhibited his poultry in community, county, State, and national events. He has raised 15 purebred calves since he began his club work. Has been secretary, treasurer, vice president, and president of his club, and has served for several seasons as local leader.

Miss Mary Emma Powell, Sampson County, N. C. Has been a 4-H club member for eight years. Was first interested in food preparation and clothing work, and later added room improvement to her enterprises. She is now president of the State 4-H club organization in North Carolina.

NORTH DAKOTA

Mr. Clarence Klusmann, Morton County, N. Dak. Has carried on a dairy calf feeding enterprise as his club work since 1926, and added the growing of four acres of alfalfa one year, and cultivation of an acre of pure Marquis wheat in 1928. He now has six purebred dairy animals. He has exhibited his stock at county and State shows and has participated in competitive team demonstrations. Has been secretary and president of his club.

Miss Juanita Lee, Stutsman County, N. Dak. Joined a 4-H club in 1924, choosing the feeding of six pigs for market as her enterprise. The following year she fed eight pigs and then changed her line of work to clothing, adding room improvement this year. She has been secretary and president of her club and has served as local leader for two seasons.

Mr. Melvin Musland, LaMoure County, N. Dak. Has been interested in feeding and management of baby beef animals as a 4-H club enterprise since 1926. His first animal was a grand champion and his animals have placed each year since. He added production of fat lambs in 1928. Has been secretary, vice president, and president of his club and has also served as local leader one season.

Miss Fern Pierce, Slope County, N. Dak. Enrolled in 1926 to carry on a clothing enterprise as her first 4-H club work. Continued this again the following year and since that time has been doing gardening and food preparation work. This year she is also carrying on a baby beef feeding enterprise. She has been secretary and president of her club and is this year vice president of the State 4-H club organization.

OHIO

Miss Carrie Butcher, Delaware County, Ohio. Has done six years of 4-H club work, specializing in clothing, room improvement, and food preparation. Has been reporter, vice president, and president of her club, and has served two years as local leader.

Miss Helen L. Culp, Logan County, Ohio. Has been a 4-H club member five years, four of which she devoted to clothing enterprises, and one to food preparation, which she plans to continue again this year. Was a member of a team which demonstrated clothing club methods at the State fair one season. She has been secretary and president of her club.

Mr. Arthur C. Dreyer, Ashtabula County, Ohio. Joined his first 4-H club in 1923, selecting poultry raising as his enterprise. Two years later he became interested in growing potatoes and continued this line of work until 1929 when he began forestry work. He is continuing this work in 1930 and has planted 1200 seedlings this year. He was a member of demonstration teams participating in county and State events and has held several offices in his club, including those of secretary, treasurer, vice president, and president.

Mr. Lawrence Roush, Meigs County, Ohio. Began his 4-H club work in 1926 with a potato growing enterprise. Has continued, making steadily increasing yields, and in 1929, besides his two acres of potatoes, grew market tomatoes yielding 265 baskets of market produce. Has been president of his club and served as assistant leader one season.

OKLAHOMA

Mr. Theodore Lorenz, Blaine County, Okla. Has been a club member since 1923, selecting as his demonstrations the growing of corn, cotton, milo, wheat, kafir, barley, potatoes, and care and management of poultry. Has taken part in 30 team demonstration contests and in 42 judging contests. Has exhibited his products in a number of community, county, and other exhibitions. Has been secretary and superintendent of the Blaine County Poultry Show. Has been an officer in his local club, president of the county and district 4-H organizations, and a member of the State 4-H executive committee.

Miss Zella Childers, Tulsa County, Okla. Has been a member of a 4-H club for six years, specializing in sewing, food preparation, gardening, food preservation, room improvement, and care and management of livestock. Has shown her products at county and State events, and has been a member of a number of judging and demonstration teams competing in county and State contests. She has been an officer in the 4-H federation of her county.

Miss Elizabeth Cooper, Marshall County, Okla. Has been a 4-H club member since 1923, carrying on demonstrations in canning, food preparation, food preservation, sewing, gardening, room improvement, and the care and management of sheep and poultry. Has held offices in her local club, was secretary and president of the county 4-H organization.

Mr. Howard Nelson, Stephens County, Okla. Five years ago joined a 4-H club for the first time, specializing for the last two years in dairying. He developed a heifer which won first in county, district, and State fairs and tenth at the 1928 National Dairy Show. Was a member of a dairy cattle judging team which won first in three State contests in 1928; was high individual at two State fairs in 1929 and member of the champion judging team at the National Dairy Show the same year. Has been president of his local club three years.

PENNSYLVANIA

Mr. Herbert K. Anders, Montgomery County, Pa. Has been a 4-H club member since 1923 and has specialized in feeding and management of dairy stock. He has been a member of a judging team participating in county and State contests. Has been president of his club and has served as local leader two seasons.

Miss Edna Hower, Northampton County, Pa. Became a 4-H club member in 1926, choosing as her first work the growing of potatoes. In 1927 she undertook clothing work, the following year did canning, and is now carrying on a room improvement enterprise. She has been local leader for two seasons.

Mr. Harry L. Smith, Union County, Pa. Has been a club member since 1927, carrying on potato growing and dairy calf feeding enterprises each year. He has been president of his club.

Miss Madelon Stitt, Juniata County, Pa. Began her club work in 1926 with a sewing enterprise. She continued this work for the two following years and in 1929 and 1930 has been engaged in room improvement. She has been secretary of her club and has served as local leader for two seasons.

RHODE ISLAND

Miss Mary Baczenski, Kent County, R. I. Joined a 4-H club in 1924 and enrolled for a sewing enterprise. This she has continued each year since that time, adding food preparation and canning in 1926 and 1928. She makes her own and her mother's clothes and articles needed about the home. Last year did all of the canning for the family. In addition assists her brother in various farm activities and her mother with the homemaking. Has been president of her club and has served as local leader two seasons.

Mr. Walter S. Colvin, Providence County, R. I. Selected handicraft work as his club enterprise when he first joined a 4-H club in 1927 and has continued this line of work, adding cultivation of a garden 220 feet by 70 feet in size. He has exhibited his products at community, county, and State events, carrying off the State championship in gardening in 1928. Has been a member of judging teams taking part in county and State competitions. Has been president of his club and this year is serving as assistant leader.

Miss Marian B. MacLaughlin, Providence County, R. I. Has been in 4-H club work since 1926. Her first enterprise was sewing and this she has continued, adding food preparation the second year. She has been secretary, treasurer, and president of her club and has also served as assistant leader.

Mr. Wilson M. Salisbury, Providence County, R. I. Began his 4-H club work with a handicraft enterprise in 1927. In 1928 he kept 25 chickens and found the work so interesting that he increased his flock the following year to 175 layers. He made an average of 210 eggs per bird last year. This year he says his average has not been quite so good but he believes it will be nearly 200 eggs per bird. Has been president of his club and assistant leader. He and a commercial poultryman in his community are endeavoring to interest boys and girls in poultry raising, the poultryman serving as leader of the club and Wilson as assistant.

SOUTH CAROLINA

Mr. Percy Anderson, Florence County, S. C. Has been in 4-H club work since 1925 when he undertook the feeding and management of a grade pig. He became so interested in his venture that he decided to expand his enterprise and also to obtain purebred stock. His second year's work covered the care and management of a purebred sow and a litter of nine pigs. During his five years' experience he has developed sixty animals. He has been enthusiastic in interesting others in his community to undertake feeding projects and within two years after he himself had tried use of purebred stock, ten farms in the community had purebred hogs. Percy and his father are partners in a purebred herd. He has been vice president of his local club and president of the Florence County Purebred Pig Club.

Miss Julia Mae Arnette, Dillon County, S. C. Has been a 4-H club member for five years. Her first enterprise was that of food preparation, which she continued a second season. This year she competed in baking contests and won the county and district championships, later ranking second in a State contest. She has also cultivated a garden and carried on room and home grounds improvement and clothing enterprises, exhibiting her products at the county fair. Represented her county in a district health contest.

Miss Hattie Monts, Richland County, S. C. First undertook 4-H club work in 1926, selecting food preparation and poultry raising for her specialities. Soon added canning and gardening to this enterprise. Also carried on home grounds improvement work and clothing. Has been district champion in gardening; has sold a large portion of her vegetables and flowers, including $70 worth of sweet peas. Has been secretary and vice president of her club.

Mr. Harper Welborn, Anderson County, S. C. Joined a 4-H club first in 1927, growing cotton for his enterprise. His profit from his acre of cotton was seven cents, seventy-five percent of his crop being destroyed by storm. However, he planted cotton again the following year and harvested 2400 pounds of seed cotton. He also grew corn this year, producing 60 bushels on his acre. He has continued growing these crops and this year is also raising turkeys. Has been vice president and president of his club and has assisted in enrolling new members, preparing programs, and obtaining records from the other club members.

SOUTH DAKOTA

Miss Doris Conway, Stanley County, S. Dak. Began her first 4-H club work in 1926, selecting clothing construction for her demonstration. The following year carried on food preparation and potato growing enterprises, and last year did sewing and canning, at the same time caring for honey bees from which she obtained 100 pounds of honey. Has been reporter, treasurer, secretary, and president of her club, and has also served as local leader.

Mr. Henry Rebbe, Jr., Lawrence County, S. Dak. First enrolled in 1923 to carry on a demonstration in feeding and management of a sow and litter. For two years following, he continued this line of work, then undertook care and feeding of sheep and in 1929 and again this year is also feeding a dairy calf. Was State dairy judging club champion in 1929. Has shown his livestock in county and State exhibitions. He has been secretary-treasurer and president of his club and has acted as local leader. Is attending agricultural college.

Mr. Jesse A. Roberts, Beadle County, S. Dak. Since joining a 4-H club in 1926, he has developed through his club demonstrations, ten litters of pigs totaling 68 market hogs, and two dairy animals. Has participated in competitive livestock judging contests. Has exhibited his livestock in a number of shows and was a member of the State champion dairy demonstration team representing South Dakota at the National Dairy Exposition. Has been secretary and president of his club and has also served as local leader. Is at present in college.

Miss Hazel G. Tollefson, Spink County, S. Dak. Joined a 4-H club in 1923, selecting food preparation for her enterprise. Added sewing the following year, canning, gardening, and room improvement in later years. Has shown her products in a number of competitions and has participated in State and interstate club events. Has been secretary, treasurer, vice president and president of her club and has also served as local leader. She is attending college.

TENNESSEE

Mr. John Williard Colebank, Shelby County, Tenn. Has been member of a 4-H club since 1923, demonstrating corn growing, feeding and management of pigs and calves, and adding cotton growing in 1926. He has been secretary and president of his local club and is also serving as local leader.

Miss Mary Ruth Davis, Hamilton County, Tenn. First joined a 4-H club in 1925 and has carried on demonstrations in feeding and management of poultry and pigs, growing peanuts, gardening, and in food preparation, sewing, and canning. She has been secretary, treasurer, and local leader. Is attending college.

Mr. George W. Lawson, Bradley County, Tenn. Enrolled in a 4-H club in 1925. Has specialized in growing corn, potatoes, and in the care and management of dairy animals. He has been president and local leader of his club.

Miss Dorris Strong, Shelby County, Tenn. Since 1927 has carried on a poultry enterprise, raising annually from 100 to 250 chicks. She also demonstrated gardening and food preservation. She has been a member of teams giving public exhibitions of poultry culling at district camp, Mid-South Fair, and other events; has been secretary, treasurer, and president of her local club, and sponsor for the poultry group.

TEXAS

Miss Ruth Kemp, Fisher County, Texas. Began her 4-H club work in 1926 with demonstrations in food preparation and preservation, poultry raising, sewing, and room improvement. She has been secretary and president of her club and has served also as local leader.

Miss Millie Novasad, Brazos County, Texas. Has been a 4-H club member since 1926. Her first demonstrations were in poultry raising. Two seasons of gardening followed, with sewing and food preservation work carried on during practically all of her club membership. She has been reporter, secretary, and president of her club and for two seasons has assisted in leading a club.

Mr. Herbert Thieme, Cameron County, Texas. First enrolled in a 4-H club in 1927 and selected poultry raising, cotton growing, and feeding pigs for market as his enterprises. These he has continued and in addition grew corn last year. He was county club champion in poultry work in 1928 and was a member of a poultry judging team which participated in a State judging competition. He has been secretary and president of his club and a member of the State 4-H organization. He and his mother are in partnership in a number of farm enterprises.

Mr. W. C. Wright, Dawson County, Texas. Has been a 4-H club member for three years, specializing in feeding and care of pigs for market. He has exhibited in a number of fairs and has participated in county and State club events.

VERMONT

Mr. Frederic Barnes, Washington County, Vermont. Is in his sixth year of 4-H club work. The first three years he specialized in poultry feeding and management and since 1927 has been carrying on a handicraft enterprise. He has exhibited his products at a number of county and other shows, and has participated in county and State club events. He has been treasurer and president of his club, and has also served as local leader.

Miss Mary V. Cunningham, Chittenden County, Vermont. First enrolled for 4-H club work in 1925 and for two years carried on sewing enterprises. Since 1927 she has been engaged in food preparation work. She has shown her products in county and State exhibitions and has been a member of club demonstrations at county camp and the State 4-H week. She has been reporter, treasurer, vice president, and president of her club.

Mr. Horace Farr, Addison County, Vermont. Has been in 4-H club work four years, specializing in poultry feeding and management, caring for a flock of from 70 to 90 birds each year. He was a delegate to the World's Poultry Congress held in Ottawa, Canada, in 1927. Has been secretary of his club for four years.

Miss Shirley Tripp, Windsor County, Vermont. Began her 4-H club work in 1922 with a sewing enterprise. Has continued her interest in this work and has added room improvement and handicraft to her program. Has shown her products at county and State exhibitions. Has been vice president and president of her club and has also served for one season as local leader.

VIRGINIA

Miss Louise Bradley, Roanoke County, Va. Has been in 4-H club work seven years, concentrating on homemaking projects such as clothing and room improvement. She has completed improvement of three rooms in her home, in partnership with her mother. She has participated in county and State contests in showing improved methods in various enterprises and in exhibits. In 1928 she was in charge of the club's booth at the county fair exhibiting club activities. This booth won first prize and with the money thus obtained the club purchased a sewing machine. This year the club is planting flowers along the highway as a community enterprise. She has been secretary, vice president, and president of her local club and has served as local leader.

Miss Lillian Hope, Loudoun County, Va. Is in her sixth year of 4-H club work. During this time she has specialized in clothing work, food preparation, and food preservation. Most of this time she has had the responsibility of her home, and the care of younger brothers and sisters. She has been president and junior local leader of her club and is president of the county 4-H club council. For the last two years her club has selected as its project for the community, the raising of funds for the county hospital.

Mr. Garnett Mason, Spotsylvania County, Va. Has been a 4-H club member since 1922, beginning his experiences with poultry raising. In 1926 he changed to corn growing and the care of dairy animals, which he is still continuing. Has shown his products at county, district and State fairs. Has been a member of the county dairy judging team representing his county at the State fair competition. Helped organize a club in a nearby community. Has been secretary, president, and is at present sponsor of his club.

Mr. Paul Rose, Alleghanny County, Va. Enrolled in 4-H club work to carry on a poultry raising demonstration in 1921 and has continued this enterprise from that time, adding to it the care and feeding of pigs and sheep, potato growing, and gardening. Has brooder houses and other modern poultry equipment and maintains a flock of 100 or more laying hens. Has exhibited his club products at a number of fairs and has been a member of both demonstration and judging teams. Has been president of his local club and of the county 4-H organization. Is attending college.

WASHINGTON

Miss Mary Campbell, Snohomish County, Wash. Has spent eight years in 4-H club work, including in her enterprises room improvement work, canning, and sewing. She has participated each year in demonstration or judging contests held at county and State events. In 1929 she and her team mate, after winning county and State championships in home economics judging, went to the Pacific International at Portland, Oregon, where they placed second in competition with a number of teams from other States. She has been vice president and president of her club and has served for two seasons as local leader.

Miss Helen F. Giberson, Grays Harbor County, Wash. Enrolled in a 4-H club in 1922, and in the eight years has carried on enterprises in room improvement, canning, and food preparation. She has exhibited her products at county and other fairs, has been a member of a demonstration team each year and for the last four years has also been on judging teams. She was State bread baking champion in 1928 and she and her team mate won the home economics demonstration contest at the State fair that year. She has been secretary, treasurer, vice president, and president of her club, secretary-treasurer of the 4-H leaders council, and president of the Grays Harbor County club which includes more than 600 members.

Mr. Edward Henderson, Whatcom County, Wash. First joined a 4-H club in 1925, selecting gardening as his demonstration. This line of work he continued until the present year, and in addition has been growing sugar beets. In 1929 his acre of sugar beets yielded $19\frac{1}{4}$ tons. This year he also undertook a poultry-raising enterprise and from 1,000 baby chicks has produced 465 pullets. He succeeded in getting a 75 to 80 per cent lay. He is taking care of a similar consignment of baby chicks this year, as well as 400 laying hens. He has been vice president and president of his club, and has served as local leader two seasons. He was a member of the demonstration team representing Whatcom County in last year's State fair, and also of the poultry culling team, both teams placing second at the State contest.

Mr. Franz Sunnitsch, Chelan County, Wash. Began his 4-H club work in 1926. He first carried on a dairy calf feeding demonstration, adding potato growing later. He grew the first certified seed potatoes ever raised in the Wenatchee valley, in 1928, producing 150 bushels. He has had charge of the home farm since he was 16 years of age. He now has eight purebred cattle, and has built up a herd of 20 cows. He has been a member of demonstration teams and judging teams competing at the State fair, the Interstate Fair at Spokane, and the Pacific International at Portland, Oregon. Has been vice president and president of his club and is vice president in the state 4-H club for the northeast section of the state.

WEST VIRGINIA

Miss Pat Handley, Greenbrier County, W. Va. Has been in 4-H club work since 1923 when she enrolled to carry on a sewing enterprise. After two years of sewing work she undertook poultry management for two years, and beginning with 1927 has been interested in feed and management of market lambs. She has been a member of several livestock judging teams, one of which won the privilege, through successive contests, of representing West Virginia in competition at the International Livestock Exposition, Chicago, in 1928. Only one other State has been represented in this competition by a girls team. She is a member of the State honor 4-H organization and has been president of her local club.

Mr. Harold Hartley, Brooke County, W. Va. Has completed six years of 4-H club work, including potato growing, dairy calf work, and home improvement. Has been president of his club, and has served as local leader one season.

Miss Hilda Hogue, Ritchie County, W. Va. Enrolled in 1924 for 4-H club work in sewing. In 1926 she again undertook a club enterprise, selecting care and feeding of purebred sheep for her demonstration. She has continued this work until 1930 when she has enrolled for further work in sewing. She has shown her sheep each year at the State exhibition and has won first place twice in county competitions and once in the State contest, placing from third to seventh in other years. She has been president of her club and is a member of the State honor organization.

Mr. Maynard F. Young, Gilmer County, W. Va. Joined a 4-H club first in 1925, enrolling for gardening work. He has also been interested in potato growing and in home beautification. He has exhibited his products each year, and was awarded a silver medal for general achievement last year. He is at present in college.

WISCONSIN

Mr. Hubert C. Freeman, Crawford County, Wis. Began his 4-H club experiences with a poultry enterprise, in 1922. He then took up feeding and management of dairy calves and has continued this line of work each year since 1924. He has had charge of the cattle exhibit at the county fair for the last three years. Last year he exhibited the prize-winning senior purebred Holstein calf at the county fair. Has participated in demonstration team contests and was a member of the team representing his county in a district contest in 1929. Has served as local leader for one season.

Miss Mildred Gillmore, Kenosha County, Wis. Joined a 4-H club in 1926 and selected gardening for her enterprise. The following year carried on a room improvement enterprise in which she won a State championship. Since that time she has specialized in baking and sewing, winning State honors in each. She has been assistant leader for two seasons and local leader two years. During these four years 95 per cent of the members of her club have completed their club work.

Mr. Carl M. Johnson, Rusk County, Wis. Has been a member of a 4-H club five years, conducting a dairy calf enterprise for two years and since that time has been doing forestry work. He has planted about 1,000 Norway and white pine seedlings on his father's farm. Has exhibited his club products at county events and in 1929 won a county championship. He was a member of the forestry demonstration team which represented his county at the State Fair in 1929. He has been secretary, vice president, and president of his club and has also served as local leader for one season.

Miss Vera B. McDowell, Marquette County, Wis. Enrolled as a 4-H club member first in 1922, selecting canning and the care and feeding of a market pig for her work. She has continued her interest in these lines, adding baking and sewing enterprises several years ago to her program. She has exhibited her club products in a number of competitions and was State home economics champion one year. She has been secretary and president of her club and has served as local leader.

